

Congratulations on completing your introduction to UKNIGHTED iMAGINATION (Ui)! It required both a brave heart and mind to Activ8 your imagination and explore the introduction of Ui throughout the 5 introductory chapters. You have succeeded in the journey of using your imagination to connect secret messages inside letters, words, charts and realms. You took on the challenge and won. Now, reward yourself and enjoy the imaginary Story Of Swordmight. Learn how the Sacred Creed of Ui was formed through this majestic, magical and enchanted story.

Story Of Swordmight

CHAPTER 1

The Majestic Eye of 2 Realms

In the year 1999 AD, the 2nd centurian millenium was set to take place.

Legend has it...that a plan by a secret organization named Uknighted intelligence would activ8 a key to an alternate Youniverse of quantum knowledge that was frozen in time.

The gemstone of PurpleX was positioned to be found, mastered and shared as a secret key that unlocks 2 mysterious time portals. The gemstone would gain access to the mighty Throne Of Enigma, located in the center of the Majestic Eye Of 2 Realms.

It has been said... the gemstone was hidden inside the genetic code of a common man who unknowingly held an encrypted message that would activ8 an awakening by 2020AD, the year when Knight Vision will rise.

The common man would face great fear as the hidden gemstone in the "Physical Realm" would bring the man both a blessing and curse. As the years passed, the quantum knowledge of Swordmight would enlighten and teach the man. Many new layers of Swordmight would appear and each layer included tests of bravery and courage that included new access to his inner "Quantum Realm". Each test required a sacrifice in the Physical Realm as the two realms would soon be bridged.

A time released key was set that would reveal an access point to the two mysterious time portals. The first was the Portal In Time (Magic PIT), which held both visible and invisible knowledge in the “Physical Realm”. The second was the Portal Of Time (Magic POT), unlocking an eternal blueprint of imagination located in the “Quantum Realm”.

The letters of the PIT and the POT would be shown to the man in reverse as the TIP and the TOP, combined as the uppermost knowledge a man was able to understand.

It was prophecy that the 12th year, month and day of the 2nd centurion millennium would be a monumental day following a chain of events that began on the 7th day of the same year and month. The gemstone mystically took the man to meet his teacher, the Warrior.

On the night of the 12th year, month and day, the man was awakened from a deep sleep and traveled to a place that no man of his time has ever been. He felt something inside of him that no man of his time had ever felt. He was both frightened and comfortable. He wanted it to both stop and keep going at the same time. A sign was given to him that reminded him of protection during his early childhood years. It calmed him and allowed him to keep going while his fear was wiped away.

The man saw a wrecking ball smash through a stone wall that stood from the earth to the heavens. He whimsically followed the ball through the wall and propelled to a place named the Majestic Eye of 2 Realms. It was there when he first saw the secret Throne Of Enigma, also known as the Mighty TOE. It was a place that was to be hidden from man in the physical realm until the year 2020AD. The Mighty TOE was the place of hidden messages that would unlock the Theory Of Everything in the “Physical Realm”.

It is known that a shooting star approached the man while he was standing in the in the Majestic Eye of 2 Realms. The star changed form into a mystical warrior that was armed for battle. The warrior held a whimsical shield that transformed. First, it was the color of blue sapphire as the letter W appeared. Inside the shield, the story began. A voice sounded and told the story of W.

The man couldn't believe his eyes and ears as he was inspired to see more. The shield magically changed color to a dark metallic blue as the letter W changed to the letter X that was the color purple. As the man was told the story of PurpleX, he chuckled when realizing that saying Purple X quickly sounded exactly like the word perplex.

The man asked the warrior his name. The warrior explained that he has many names but the man has always called him by the name Y. The warrior told the man that he was his secret teacher since he was born. He said the man asked for him many times. He taught the man that the more he asked for him, the more he would see. He showed the man that the Majestic Eye Of 2 Realms and home of the secret Throne Of Enigma was a magnetic wormhole between the Physical and Quantum Realms of all human beings.

Y went on to teach the man that the physical realm is not aware of the quantum realm but the quantum realm is aware of the physical realm.

The man felt unworthy of what he was seeing, hearing, and feeling. He shared his thoughts with the warrior. The warrior explained that the man was chosen because of the number of times the man asked Y throughout his life. The warrior explained that a regular man would be chosen based on how many times he asked for me. The warrior smiled as he informed the man that he had asked Y or “why?” more times in his life than any other human being before him.

Little did the man know that his strong desire and curiosity in the physical realm was being recorded as a competition that one day would show him this majestic place.

The warrior went on to explain that the human being that asked “why?” the most was chosen because they had an inner quest to find reason. They always knew and felt that there was more than meets the eye in the “Physical Realm". They would be someone who simply would not stop asking until they were answered. The warrior then shared with the man that this is the reason his name is Y. He comforted the man by explaining that he was always with the man just watching and guiding him through his questions about the Physical Realm. The man named him "Why?" and the quantum genetic universe of life that lives within the warrior decided to shorten the name to Y because they thought he would like it better. They were right.

The man was told that he would need to go on a journey that most men in the physical realm could not survive. The man was scared and the warrior explained that SCARED is the path to the SACRED CREED. He then showed the man how the words SACRED and CREED were located inside the word SCARED as two anagram words.

The warrior said that the man from the Physical Realm to be chosen did have the greatest chance of survival but it was not guaranteed at all. He also explained that it would require a 7 year period of war and battle within him that would happen between the good and bad living within his inner quantum Youniverse. Y explained that if the man survived, a bigger war and battle would take place between his "Quantum Realm" and his "Physical Realm".

The man would be required to go through what no man before him or after him would be required to do. His job was to break a barrier for all human beings before self-destruction would lead them to extinction.

The shield then changed form and surrounded the man with vision of a crystallized moon appearing as frozen and the bright sun sharing the mystical sky. The fire from the sun traveled to the moon which soon began to melt. The crystallized frost of the moon traveled to the sun which began to freeze. A solid bridge of ice with a road of cooling lava formed between the two as clouds formed around the bridge while the lava and ice were becoming one.

The clouds began to spiral and transform into the shape of a HEART. It then changed into a circle that appeared to the man as planet EARTH. As the man realized that the two words that described the shapes he saw used the same exact letters which formed both words. Suddenly, the EARTH changed to the most beautiful clouds the man had ever seen. Raindrops of gold with hail stones of crystal blue began to fall from the imaginary cloud. The drops and stones formed into a majestic cyclone. The man noticed numbers and letters inside the whimsical weather pattern that changed into the shape of a double helix. It was the same double helix that the man had learned of in the Physical Realm regarding genetics. As the man quickly realized the Warrior of Y was showing a story of genetics that is located inside all human beings, he was perplexed.

The double helix then traveled throughout the mystical sky as one letter and number would be left by its trail starting with the letter A and the number 1. As the A and the 1 were positioned in the sky, a magnetic field was shown pulling them together. They magnetized together and began to rotate. The rotation became faster until the man could no longer see the A and the 1. The spinning circle then reached a point of explosion and the word "Hydrogen" appeared and broke into pieces. The pieces changed form into stars and the stars permanently positioned as a formation or picture in the mystical sky.

The letter B and the number 2 followed with the point of explosion showing the word "Helium". This happened throughout the entire sky with each letter of the English alphabet and a number left by the trail ending in an explosion of the atomic numbered element written in the mystical sky.

A 1 Hydrogen, B 2 Helium, C 3 Lithium, D 4 Beryllium, E 5 Boron, F 6 Carbon, G 7 Nitrogen, H 8 Oxygen, I 9 Fluorine, J 10 Neon, K 11 Sodium, L 12 Magnesium, M 13 Aluminum, N 14 Silicon, O 15 Phosphorus, P 16 Sulfur, Q 17 Chlorine, R 18 Argon, S 19 Potassium, T 20 Calcium, U 21 Scandium, V 22 Titanium, W 23 Vanadium, X 24 Chromium, Y 25 Manganese, Z 26 Iron

The man was in a state of amazement as each explosion filled the sky with stars that were the constellations of stars he was familiar with in the physical realm.

He understood the Warrior of Y was showing him an unknown connection between the 26 letters of the English alphabet that were all assigned a number that was the atomic number of an element in the periodic chart from the physical realm. As the man gazed upon a familiar sky filled with stars and constellations, the double helix turned into a shooting star that again approached him and became the Warrior named Y.

The man was realizing that connections between the physical and quantum realms were hidden and located inside our genetics. He concluded that the quantum realm is our genetic universe. He started to see that our quantum realm as the invisible architect that literally made us in the physical realm discover each and every letter, number, element and more. A secretly hidden blueprint within the communication tools that all human beings use in the Physical Realm.

The man had a million questions to ask but before he could, the whimsical shield of Y showed the story of the first question the man had before the man finished thinking it. The man began to wonder why this was shown in the English alphabet and language only when there are many languages.

The shield combined the words ENGLISH and ALPHABET as such, ENGLISHALPHABET. One by one, letters magically flew from the combined formation showing the anagram words

LIGHTPLANE – Defined as; a small a lightweight airplane especially: a privately owned passenger plane.

HIGHBALL- Defined as; to travel fast

The shield then combined the words ENGLISH and LANGUAGE as such, ENGLISHLANGUAGE. One by one, letters magically flew from the combined formation showing the anagram words

UNLEASHING – Defined as; set free from a leash

UNSHELLING – Defined as; remove from a shell

UNSEALING – Defined as; remove or break the seal of

The man understood the message and was puzzled by all that he had just witnessed. He was suddenly awakened to find himself in the physical realm. As he was lying in his bed, he grabbed his cell phone that was on the floor next to his bed. He checked the time and couldn't understand that he had only been sleeping for about 20 minutes.

As he checked on his family, they were all sleeping soundly. The man remembered everything and realized quickly that time in the quantum realm was far different than time in the physical realm. The man started a journal of his experience. The introduction both puzzled and inspired the man beyond any words of description he could think of in the physical realm.

As he finished logging his experience the best he could, he headed to bed wondering if this would happen again. He felt a calming peace throughout his entire body. Right before he fell asleep, he spoke a profound statement that automatically came through his mind and mouth from somewhere very special. The man said, "Goodnight to my conscious and good morning to my subconscious". The man woke up after what seemed to be a trance like sleep and it was the next morning. The man remembered nothing of his sleep other than the 20 minutes he spent training with the Warrior of Y.

For months the man couldn't stop thinking about what he had seen. He wondered if it would happen again or not. He experienced small bits and pieces when he slept but nothing like the 20 minute introduction.

This only caused the man to keep asking Y. In the Physical Realm, he was a poor man who was heavily indebted financially. All of his debt was generated from his long line of creative works that almost made it but not quite yet. The Physical Realm was at an all-time high of being a pressure cooker but the man knew this had reason beyond the surface.

He imagined that the quantum realm may have been applying the pressure for many years in many ways. Perhaps he was being trained long before he was aware. He thought that maybe this was all part of the testing that a common man must overcome. Regardless, he was frustrated but continued to try and piece it all together.

He would wake up in the middle of the night in the Physical Realm and organize letters and numbers. He would eventually create equations from the numbers that were assigned to each letter. He would
